

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Combine the sentences using a coordinating or subordinating conjunction.

1. We can play outside.
It has stopped raining.

● We can play outside as it has stopped raining.

2. Matt could not go to the park.
He did not finish his science project.

● Matt could not go to the park because he did not finish his science project.

3. The water was deep and murky,
The swimmers dove in.

● Even though the water was deep and murky, the swimmers dove in.

4. Jordan refused to say hello to Brandon at school.
They were friends.

● Although they were friends, Jordan refused to say hello to Brandon at school.

5. The swimmers stayed close to shore.
The waves were very powerful.

● The swimmers stayed close to shore as the waves were very powerful.

6. Polar bears are dangerous animals.
Grizzly bears are dangerous animals.

● Polar bears and grizzly bears are dangerous animals.

7. A movie can be entertaining.
A movie can be very dull.

● A movie can be entertaining or very dull.

8. Tina wants to do well on the test.
She will need to study.

● Tina wants to do well on the test, so she will need to study.
