

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

A subordinating conjunction joins a dependent clause to an independent clause.
It establishes relationship between two ideas.

Circle the subordinating conjunction in each sentence.

1. He got good grades even though he never studied.
2. Michelle took care of her sister so that her mom could go to work.
3. Alan ran in the 400 meter race instead of the 800 meter race.
4. It was a great day once it stopped raining.
5. She did well on the test although she could have done better.
6. I recommend the steak because it is always delicious.
7. Todd owned his own company until his son took over.
8. Allison asked for help rather than struggle through the problem.
9. I can go to the game if my husband is working.
10. My mom went to the bank after the mail came.
11. He finished the work since no one else wanted to.
12. They came for a visit although they did not call first.
13. Nicole walked the dog before she went to work.
14. My grandmother will cook if we ask her to.
15. I read the newspaper even though I knew there was bad news.