

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Combine the sentences using a coordinating or subordinating conjunction.

1. We went for a walk.
It was raining.

● We went for a walk even though it was raining.

2. He said no.
She asked politely.

● He said no even though she asked politely.

3. All three of them ran for the ball.
They all missed it.

● All three of them ran for the ball yet they all missed it.

4. She will never make it in time.
There is no traffic.

● She will never make it in time unless there is no traffic.

5. I put the fish in.
I filled the tank.

● I put the fish in after I filled the tank.

6. The floor was still dirty.
I washed it this morning.

● The floor was still dirty although I washed it this morning.

7. Derek had to leave.
He wished he could stay.

● Derek had to leave, but he wished he could stay.

8. Nina called her mother.
She did not pick up the phone.

● Nina called her mother, but she did not pick up the phone.
