

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Answer the questions.

Q 1. What special features help dog family animals chase their prey?

A 1. Dog family animals have long legs and flexible bodies that help them in chasing their prey.

Q 2. Why do wolves live in large groups? What their group is called?

A 2. The group of wolves is called 'pack'. Wolves live in large groups to hunt and kill their prey.

Q 3. How do canids communicate with each other?

A 3. Canids communicate with each other by scent signals, gestures and sounds like growls, barks and howls.