

Name: _____

Date: _____

Time: ____ : ____ - ____ : ____

Antonyms are words that have opposite meanings.

Find the antonyms in each sentence and write them on the line.

1. I would rather be rich than poor. _____

2. What can I do to turn your frown into a smile? _____

3. I am sick, but the doctor can make me well. _____

4. You should try to make friends, not enemies. _____

5. I want to play outside, but Mom said to come inside. _____

6. The fire is warm on this cold day. _____

7. Is Nana asleep or awake? _____

8. My brother likes peas, but I hate them! _____

9. I thought we would be late, but we were early. _____

10. I was sure my answer was wrong, but Mrs. Miller said it was right! _____