

Follow the maze and connect the rhyming words.

The maze consists of a central path that branches into two paths at the top. The left path leads to a box containing a bat illustration and the word "bat". The right path leads to a box containing a red lip illustration and the word "lip". Both paths merge back into a single path that leads to a box containing a blue mat illustration and the word "mat". From the "mat" box, the path branches again. The left path leads to a box containing a cat illustration and the word "cat". The right path leads to a box containing a woman's hip illustration and the word "hip". Both paths merge back into a single path that leads to a box containing a red hat illustration and the word "hat". From the "hat" box, the path branches once more. The left path leads to a box containing a blue zipper illustration and the word "zip". The right path leads to a box containing a boy's ripped paper illustration and the word "rip". Both paths merge back into a single path that leads to two "END" labels.
